Dear Friends,

There are so many fantastic festivals, fairs and events happening right here in Michigan! These fun-filled activities are perfect opportunities to take part in the variety of experiences our state has to offer. This guide provides an overview of events, most of which are nearby, to keep you entertained all summer long.

Did you know tourism is Michigan’s third-largest industry? Spending time as a tourist in your home state is a wonderful way to help our state’s economy while creating new memories and traditions with your loved ones. This is just a small sampling of the many unique events across our state. You can access additional information and more activities at Michigan.org. I hope this information helps you plan your family’s next outdoor adventure!

Travel safely and best wishes for a beautiful Pure Michigan summer.
